

Why consultations are important

- To ensure that a selection of best style is selected for client
- To ensure health and safety is of the upmost care
- To ensure health and skin conditions are noted
- To know if there is any contraindications
- To ensure client knows of the process and aftercare
- To gain clarity with the client
- To ensure client permission for test patch
- To ensure images of before and after can be publishes
- To ensure proper client record keeping
- To ensure all aspect of treatment is noted in consult form
- To ensure history and data is noted down
- To enhance client experience
- To ensure each client case is specific to their own
- To enable best practices